Year built: 2009

Public Remarks: This handcrafted cabin is ready for your customization! The opportunities are endless for the interior of this massive cabin while the exterior is protected by pine and steel. In-floor heat plumbed throughout the first level. 3000 ft of geothermal piping runs under the lake bay and comes up into the SW corner of the home. The first level walks out on the North side to lake level while the second level walks out on to a sturdy deck that overlooks the lake bay on the North side or out on to the hill on the South side. The third level is almost completely finished with just needing flooring and amenities. Many unique features abound including the 3 story log that runs through the center of the home! Come check it out! This handcrafted cabin is ready for your customization! The opportunities are endless for the interior of this massive cabin while the exterior is protected by pine and steel.
